

Noah Deckery Rasnick
Sgt. US Army
Korea
DOB: 10/08/1930

Noah Deckery Rasnick, 77, passed away Saturday, Feb. 9, 2008.

He attended the Freewill Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Noah Gilden Rasnick and Iona Keigh Rasnick; one son, Lonnie Wayne Rasnick; one brother, Henry Rasnick; and one sister, Agnes Viers.

Survivors include his wife, Irma Rasnick of Burlington, Texas; five sons, Ronald (Holly) Rasnick of Utica, Mich., Jerry (Raynell) Rasnick of Denton, Texas, Sidney (Debbie) Rasnick of Burleson, Texas, Phillip (Geraldine) of North Richland Hills, Texas and Christopher Rasnick of Burleson; five brothers, Leslie Rasnick of Cookeville, Tenn., Charlie Rasnick of Madison Heights, Mich., Floyd Rasnick of Lapeer, Mich., Tildon Rasnick of Madison Heights, Mich., and Larry Rasnick of Clausen, Mich.; four sisters, Evelyn Muculla, Joann Nash of Cookeville, Tenn., Barbara Skinner of Cape Geraldo, Mo. and Brenda Parks of Ferndale, Mich.; 18 grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Jason Rasnick, Michael Rasnick, Phillip Rasnick Jr., Matthew Rasnick, Noah Rasnick, Simon Rincon, Jerry Rasnick, Phillip Rasnick and Sidney Rasnick.

Honorary pallbearers were Timothy Rasnick, Ron Rasnick, Eric Bushe, Christopher Fetko and other friends.

A service was held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 14, 2008 at Dyers Chapel Freewill Baptist Church with Robbie Hay and Mike Stidham officiating.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Friday, Feb. 15, 2008 at Dyers Chapel Freewill Baptist Church with Robbie Hay officiating. A military service was conducted by Clintwood's VFW Post 8979. He was laid to rest in the Rasnick Family Cemetery, Stratton.

On-line condolences may be made to mullinsfuneralhome1@verizon.net

Mullins Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements